

I would suggest the adoption of the proposed RM as a positive way of improving usage of the frequency range under review.

Such a step would lessen the requirements of FCC enforcement by allowing self-enforcement with one standard set of guidelines.

This will reduce confusion and chaos as sometimes occurs due to use of only a volunteer or suggested set of guidelines.

I urge the commission to consider this RM as proposed.

Thank You,

Billy Cox, AA4NU